Each affiliate will offer franchises using its own franchise offering circular. You may face competition from any one of these restaurant concepts because one or more of these restaurant concepts may be established in close proximity to your Restaurant. Each affiliate has total discretion where to permit its franchisees to operate.

The Franchise. We offer franchises to individuals and entities for restaurants which offer fresh gourmet salads and soups, other food products and beverages, and related services under the form of Franchise Agreement attached to this Offering Circular as Exhibit C (the "Franchise Agreement"). In connection with our Doc Green's Restaurant concept, we have developed various specialty gourmet food products which we may sell under the Doc Green's brand and also under other brands we may create and develop.

A typical Doc Green's Restaurant occupies approximately 1,400 to 2,800 square feet of space that may be either owned by you or leased from a third party. All Restaurants are constructed to our specifications as to size, layout, decor and the like. A Doc Green's Restaurant may be located in either a freestanding building or in an in-line retail plaza space, but, in any event, ample parking, good visibility and availability of prominent signage is a necessity. A Doc Green's Restaurant will employ approximately 18 to 25 persons.

We created the Doc Green's franchise system which includes the common use and promotion of the name "DOC GREEN'S GOURMET SALADS" and other service marks, trademarks, trade names, logos, emblems, signs, slogans, insignia and commercial symbols we may designate from time to time (collectively, the "Marks"); distinctive food products and the formula and quality standards therefore; procedures for inventory and management control; training; advertising and promotional programs; and ongoing assistance. We may from time to time add or delete products and/or services, and you will be expected to follow suit. Doc Green's Restaurants use the method of operation, products, concept, format, style and trade secrets developed, adopted and approved by us. You will operate a Doc Green's Restaurant as an independent business utilizing the Marks, business concepts, support, guidance and materials developed by us. You will offer and provide products and services to the general public under the terms and conditions contained within the Franchise Agreement and our confidential operations manual (the "Operations Manual") that will be loaned to you at the time of training. You may not offer other services or products without our prior written approval.

Competition. Doc Green's Restaurants compete primarily with casual restaurants, including fast casual, quick service, take-out, delivery and fast food restaurants that offer similar menus, including regional and national chains and franchise systems. The casual restaurant business is very competitive which is often driven by fierce price competition, however, we believe that we have created a niche market with the Doc Green's franchise system by creating a specialty restaurant with a unique trade dress and appearance which is easily distinguishable from other casual restaurants. Prior business management experience is vital for new franchisees, and prior restaurant management experience is highly desirable. Prior business ownership experience also is highly desirable.

The Agreements. You must enter into a Market Development Agreement, the current form of which is attached to this Offering Circular as Exhibit B (the "Development Agreement"). Under the Development Agreement, you must develop, open and operate an agreed upon number of Restaurants located in an area of responsibility (the "Area of Responsibility") in accordance with an agreed upon development schedule (the "Development Schedule"). You must enter into a Development Agreement even if you will establish only one Restaurant. There is no preset minimum or maximum number of Restaurants that you may agree to establish in connection with a Development Agreement. The number of Restaurants to be developed is negotiated between you and us on a case-by-case basis. The Development Agreement will expire on the day after operations of the final Restaurant to be established under the Development Agreement are required to begin as provided on the Development Schedule. The Development Agreement will not grant any protected territory, exclusivity or other rights in which to establish your Restaurants within the Area of Responsibility. You may establish your Restaurants at any location within the Area of Responsibility provided we consent to the location, which may be withheld or granted in our sole discretion, the location is in a state where we are permitted to sell Doc Green's franchises, and the Restaurant is not located in the franchise territory granted to another Doc Green's franchisee. Within our sole discretion, we may consider a location proposed by you outside your Area of Responsibility.

You will operate each Restaurant to be developed under the Development Agreement under a separate Franchise Agreement. The Franchise Agreement will grant you a protected territory (the "Franchise Territory") which will be determined on a case-by-case basis by considering the population, traffic flow, presence of businesses, location of competitors (including other Doc Green's franchisees), demographics and other market conditions surrounding the location of the Restaurant. The Franchise Territory may not be unilaterally altered, and the continuation of the Franchise Territory during the term of the Franchise Agreement does not depend on a certain sales or revenue volume or market penetration. We may not operate, or permit any other person to operate, a Doc Green's Restaurant in the Franchise Territory during the term of the Franchise Agreement; although, we may distribute products, or permit others to distribute products, which are the same or similar to those offered by Doc Green's Restaurants, whether under the Marks or under other trademarks, trade names, services marks, logos or other commercial symbols and through any channel of distribution or method other than a Doc Green's Restaurant within the Franchise Territory, including, sales through catalogs, e-commerce, mail order, kiosks, mass merchandise, supermarkets and club stores, even if you sell these products at your Restaurant.

Regulatory Matters. In addition to laws and regulations that apply to businesses generally such as workers' compensation, corporate, tax, you will be subject to various federal, state and local government regulations including those relating to construction, site location, and the preparation and sale of food and liquor that apply to restaurant operations, as well as public health, sanitation and safety codes and ordinances. If you sell liquor, beer or wine at your Restaurant, you must obtain a liquor license under state and local law. You may also have liability under Dram Shop laws for injuries relating to the sale and consumption of these substances. You must acknowledge in the Franchise Agreement that you are responsible for keeping apprised of, and complying with, all applicable laws, including the Americans with Disabilities Act, as amended. Before you buy a franchise, you are encouraged to investigate these regulations and other laws that may be applicable to your business. You should consider their impact on your business and any increased cost of doing business.

3. LITIGATION

Jerry Garcia Estate LLC v. Moe's Southwest Grill, LLC, Raving Brands, LLC, a/k/a WOW Brands, LLC, H. Martin Sprock, III, and Leann Sprock, et al., United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division, Civil Action No. 1:04-CV-3591, filed on December 8, 2004 and amended on or about March 31, 2005 (the "Lawsuit"). Plaintiff filed the Lawsuit asserting both federal and state law claims in connection with the use of Jerry Garcia's name, image, likeness, song lyrics, trademarks and celebrity identity in MOE'S Restaurants. Plaintiff asserts that such use creates confusion among consumers and gives the impression that Jerry Garcia or his estate licensed or endorsed the use of his name, voice, likeness, song lyrics and trademarks by MOE'S Restaurants. Plaintiff has asserted (i) trademark infringement, unfair competition, false endorsement and dilution of trademark under §§ 43(a) and (c) of the Lanham Act; (ii) copyright infringement under 17 U.S.C. § 101, et seq.; (iii) misappropriation of plaintiff's rights of publicity under Georgia law; (iv) violations of the Uniform Deceptive Practices Act under O.C.G.A. § 10-1-370, et seq.; (v) Georgia trademark and unfair competition violations under O.C.G.A. § 23-2-55; and (vi) conversion under O.C.G.A. § 51-10-1, et seq. The Lawsuit seeks an unspecified amount of compensatory damages and punitive damages; as well as injunctive relief and restitution. On January 17, 2005, defendants filed an answer, affirmative defenses and counterclaims in response to the Lawsuit ("Answer"). In the Answer, defendants denied all wrongdoing, and asserted, among other things, that the use of Jerry Garcia's name, voice or likeness is protected under the First Amendment. In addition, defendants have counterclaimed based on plaintiff's interference with defendants' business and have requested that the Court declare that plaintiff has no protectable interest in the name, image or likeness of Jerry Garcia. This case is listed in this Item III because Mr. Sprock, our Chief Executive Officer and Director, is a named defendant. This lawsuit does not relate to Doc Green's restaurants or the Doc Green's brand. The amended complaint filed by the plaintiff added a number of Moe's franchisees as defendants in the Lawsuit. The parties are presently engaged in discovery.

Concluded Actions:

Komodo Holdings, Inc. v. Planet Smoothie, LLC, et al., Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, Civil No. E-59107. On July 2, 1997, Komodo Holdings, Inc. ("Komodo"), a co-owner with Mr. Sprock and others of several entities unrelated to our business operations, instituted a civil action involving claims relating to the operations of the co-owned entities. This action was settled and dismissed with prejudice in October 1997. The settlement agreement required that Komodo's interest in the co-owned entities be purchased by other co-owners for approximately $80,000.

Edward Bucaj v. H. Martin Sprock, III, et al., State Court of Fulton County, Georgia, Civil Action No. 02VS034776C. Bucaj Enterprizes, Inc. ("Bucaj"), a franchisee of Planet Smoothie, instituted an arbitration proceeding with the American Arbitration Association. The arbitration proceeding was amended alleging violations of New York franchise laws, fraud, misrepresentation, breach of contract, and breach of the duty of good faith and fair dealing. Bucaj sought to amend the arbitration proceeding to add H. Martin Sprock, III and another Planet Smoothie officer to the arbitration proceeding. This request was denied. Under the arbitration proceeding, Planet Smoothie was found to have violated New York's franchise laws and a monetary award was granted to Bucaj. Subsequent to the arbitration award, Planet Smoothie instituted a civil action in the Federal District Court of the Northern District of Georgia to have the arbitration award modified or vacated. While this Federal Court civil action was pending, Edward Bucaj ("E. Bucaj"), in his individual capacity, filed the above-referenced civil action naming Mr. Sprock and certain other officers of Planet Smoothie as defendants. The allegations of E. Bucaj in the civil action were virtually the same allegations claimed in the arbitration proceedings, with an additional claim of conspiracy being alleged. The Federal District Court upheld the arbitration award. Planet Smoothie, Bucaj, and E. Bucaj entered into a settlement agreement for the payment of the award by Planet Smoothie to Bucaj and E. Bucaj in an amount equal to $230,000. The State Court action was dismissed with prejudice in January 2004.

Other than these three actions, no litigation must be disclosed in this Offering Circular.

4. BANKRUPTCY

Our current President and Chief Operating Officer, Steven M. LaMastra, was an Executive Vice President of Wolf Camera, Inc., an Atlanta, Georgia based photography retailer, from January 1, 1994 through March 31, 2002 ("Wolf Camera"). On June 21, 2001, Wolf Camera filed a voluntary petition for reorganization under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division (Case Nos. 01-83470, 01-83472, 01-83474 and 01-83475). On September 21, 2001, the court entered an order approving the sale of Wolf Camera's assets to Ritz Camera Centers, Inc. Other than this one action, no person previously identified in Items 1 or 2 of this Offering Circular has been involved as a debtor in proceedings under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code that must be disclosed in this Item.

5. INITIAL FRANCHISE FEE

Franchise Fee and Market Development Fee. You must pay us an initial franchise fee equal to $25,000 for each Doc Green's Restaurant franchised by you. The initial franchise fee is uniform for all franchisees purchasing a franchise through this Offering Circular. We have no intention, now or in the future, of reducing the initial franchise fee for any prospective franchisee, although we reserve the right to do so in our sole discretion on a case by case basis. We reserve the right to waive or reduce the initial franchise fee for our affiliates, employees, existing franchises or if we run a franchise marketing promotion. Initial franchise fees are not refundable under any circumstances.

As discussed in Item 1 of this Offering Circular, you must enter into a Development Agreement where you will commit to develop an agreed number of Doc Green's Restaurants consistent with the Development Schedule. When you sign the Development Agreement, you must pay us an upfront initial franchise fee of $25,000 for each Restaurant that you agree to develop under the Development Agreement (the "Development Fee"). The Development Fee is payable in one lump sum when you sign the Development Agreement. If a Restaurant is developed in accordance with the Development Schedule, the Development Fee attributable to that Restaurant will be credited towards the payment of the initial franchise fee due under the Franchise Agreement for that Restaurant. If a Restaurant is not established in accordance with the Development Schedule, the Development Fee that would have otherwise been credited towards payment of the initial franchise fee for that Restaurant will be forfeited and retained by us. If you and we are unable to agree upon a site for a Restaurant and, as a result, you fail to meet your Development Schedule, we may terminate your Development Agreement. If, for any reason, the Development Agreement terminates before all or a portion of the Development Fee has been applied to the initial franchise fees, we will retain the unapplied portion of the Development Fee to compensate us for our time, effort and foregone opportunities. The Development Fee is uniform for all franchisees purchasing through this Offering Circular. We have no intention, now or in the future, of reducing the Development Fee for any prospective franchisee, although we reserve the right to do so in our sole discretion on a case by case basis. The Development Fee is not refundable under any circumstances.

Other Initial Fees. Generally, there are no additional initial fees. Under the Franchise Agreement, we provide you with assistance in opening the Restaurant and training your employees. Although we do not intend to charge you for this assistance, we reserve the right to charge you for extraordinary travel and living expenses incurred by our employees in providing this assistance. In the event you request additional opening assistance, which we envision will only occur in unique circumstances, and we agree to provide you with the extra assistance, you must reimburse us for all costs and expenses we incur in connection with providing you this additional assistance, including wages, overhead and travel and living expenses of our employees providing the assistance and we have the right to charge our daily fee for additional assistance (see Item 6). It is not possible to estimate a range for these additional costs and expenses because they will vary depending upon a number of factors like the franchisee, the amount of extra assistance requested and the location of the franchise. Like the Market Development Fee and the Franchise Fee, these additional fees are not refundable under any circumstances. Any charges you incur in these circumstances will be in addition to the initial franchisee fee and Development Fee. There may be occasions when you must purchase goods and services from us or our affiliates. These circumstances are described in more detail in Items 6,7 and 8. The cost of these goods and services, if any, will be in addition to the Development Fee and initial franchise fee.

Note 1: Unless this Offering Circular specifically provides otherwise, all fees are imposed by and payable to us and are non-refundable. See Item 9 of this Offering Circular for information concerning your principal obligations under the Development Agreement and the Franchise Agreement.

Note 2: "Gross Sales" means the amount of sales of all products and services sold in, on, about or from the Restaurant, together with any other revenues derived from the operation of the Restaurant, whether by you or by any other person, whether or not in accordance with the terms of the Franchise Agreement, and whether for cash or on a charge, credit, barter or time basis, including all sales and services (i) where orders originate and/or are accepted by you in the Restaurant but delivery or performance thereof is made from or at any place other than the Restaurant or (ii) pursuant to telephone or other similar orders received or filled at or in the Restaurant. For purposes of determining the Royalty Fee and Advertising Fee, there shall be deducted from Gross Sales: (a) the amount of refunds, allowances or discounts to customers (including coupon sales) up to 5% of the Gross Sales, provided the related sales have previously been included in Gross Sales; and (b) the amount of any excise or sales tax levied upon retail sales and paid over to the appropriate governmental authority.

Note 3: Amounts paid to an advertising cooperative will be credited against your required expenditures for local advertising under Section 11.3 of the Franchise Agreement. All members of an advertising cooperative (whether a franchisee-owned, company-owned or affiliate-owned Restaurant) have equal voting rights on all matters brought before the advertising cooperative for a vote, including matters relating to the amount of required contributions.

Note 4: The fees you will pay will be reasonable audit fees for your business and you should check with your accountant or auditor to determine what is reasonable.

Note 5: If we notify you in writing that you have failed to maintain standards at the Restaurant, and you fail to cure the failure within 10 days, we have the right to assign trainers to your Restaurant and you must reimburse us for the trainers' salaries, travel and living expenses and other related expenses and pay a training fee of $300 per day.

Note 6: Normally there is no fee for these services, which are provided by telephone or at our offices, unless you require unusual, extensive or extraordinary assistance. If so, we have the right to charge you a reasonable fee of approximately $300 per day.

Note 7: Upon termination of the Franchise Agreement due to your breach, you must pay us, in addition to other amounts owed, liquidated damages in an amount equal to (i) the greater of (a) the average annual amount of Royalty Fees payable by you to us for the two years immediately preceding the date of termination or (b) the Royalty Fees payable by you to us for the 12 month period immediately preceding the date of termination, however, if the Restaurant has not been open for at least 12 months, the average monthly amount of Royalty Fees payable by you to us for the months in which the Restaurant has been open multiplied by 12; then (ii) multiplied by two; then (iii) multiplied by (a) five or (b) the number of years remaining in the then-current term of the Franchise Agreement, whichever is less.

Note 8: Under the Franchise Agreement, we may require that all royalty and advertising fees, and advertising cooperative contributions must be paid by automated bank draft. Accordingly, we have the right to require you to sign an electronic transfer of funds authorization for your bank account.

Explanatory Notes:

Note 1: The initial franchise fee includes the loan of our Operations Manual and initial training for up to two individuals having responsibility for the day-to-day operations of your Restaurant. See Item 11 of this Offering Circular for additional information about the initial training program. The initial franchise fee is not refundable under any circumstances.

As discussed in Item 5 of this Offering Circular, you will pay a Development Fee based on the number of Restaurants you must develop under the Development Agreement. In most circumstances, the Development Fee is credited against the initial franchise fee you must pay for each Doc Green's Restaurant developed and opened according to your Development Schedule. If a Restaurant is not established in accordance with the Development Schedule, the Development Fee that would have otherwise been credited towards payment of the initial franchise fee for that Restaurant will be forfeited and retained by us.

Note 2: These figures presume that you will be leasing the Restaurant premises and only represent rent for one month. We are unable to estimate the total cost of purchasing suitable premises for your Restaurant or the amount of any down payment that would be required. Rent will vary depending upon the size of the premises, the site's condition, its location, demand for the site, the build-out requirements and construction or other allowances from the landlord, and the requirements of individual landlords. These figures are based upon our experience in Atlanta, Georgia. These figures may vary considerably in other parts of the United States. Regardless of whether you lease or purchase the Restaurant premises, a typical Doc Green's Restaurant occupies approximately 1,400 to 2,800 square feet of space. Doc Green's Restaurant may be located in either a freestanding building or in an in-line retail plaza space, but, in any event, the Restaurant requires ample parking, good visibility and availability of prominent signage. Because of the wide variation in lease rates for retail space, you should thoroughly investigate the costs of obtaining a location.

Note 3: Your lessor may require a security deposit before you take possession of the premises. This deposit may or may not be refundable.

Note 4: The cost of leasehold improvements will vary widely depending upon the size and condition of the premises, whether or not there are any existing and comparable leasehold improvements in the premises, the extent and quality of improvements desired by you over and above our minimum requirements, landlord's cash contribution to the cost of the improvements, and the like. Improvements include electrical, carpentry, floor covering, painting and contractor's fee.

Note 5: We provide initial training at no charge for up to two individuals, but you must arrange and pay for all food and lodging expenses for the people who attend the initial training program. Costs vary depending on the distance traveled and the type of lodging. The amount shown does not include the cost of transportation. See Item 11 of this Offering Circular for a description of the initial training program.

Note 6: You must purchase or lease certain equipment (such as kitchen equipment), machinery, furniture, and decorations which comply with our specifications and standards. Costs will vary depending on a number of factors including, without limitation, building codes and health requirements of the state where your Restaurant is located.

Note 7: The cost of your exterior sign will vary depending upon the size, color and back-lite channel letters of the sign and other specifications as may be required by us or the Operations Manual.

Note 8: You must conduct a grand opening advertising campaign with the opening of your Restaurant. You must pay all costs of the grand opening, including publicity costs, promotional costs, plus the full cost of any price reductions or other customer inducements. Costs may vary depending on your market and the type of advertising used, however, you must spend a minimum of $15,000 during the period 30 days prior and 60 days after the opening of your Restaurant or, if you purchased an existing Restaurant, 60 days after the purchase of your Restaurant.

Note 9: This figure is an estimate of the annual cost of maintaining the insurance required by the Franchise Agreement.

Note 10: This figure includes amounts for utility costs, business licenses, permits, opening assistance, and the cost of training your employees.

Note 11: This estimates the funds needed to cover your expenses during the first three months of operation. These expenses include payroll costs (excluding any wage or salary paid to you), other miscellaneous expenses and working capital. Your costs will vary depending on how rapidly your business grows. These figures are estimates based on our past business experience. We cannot guarantee that you will not have additional expenses starting the business. Your costs will depend on factors such as how closely you follow our methods and procedures; your management skill, experience and business knowledge; local economic conditions; the local market for our product; the prevailing wage rate; competition; and the sales level achieved during the initial period. All of these expenses are paid to third parties.

Note 12: Restaurants located in non-traditional venues like airports, office buildings, hospitals, stadiums or university food service facilities will likely experience lower initial investment expenditures than Restaurants in traditional locations like malls or strip centers.

Note 13: We relied on our management's business acumen to compile these estimates. You should review these figures carefully with a business advisor before making any decision to purchase the franchise. The amount shown is based upon our experience in Atlanta, Georgia. These figures may vary considerably in other parts of the United States. In addition, your costs will depend on factors such as: your compliance with our methods and procedures; your management skill; your business experience and business acumen; local economic conditions; the prevailing wage rate; and the growth of your franchise during the initial period.

Note 14: We do not offer direct or indirect financing to franchisees for any of these items. The availability and terms of financing will depend on factors like the availability of financing generally, your credit worthiness, collateral you pledge, policies of your lending institution, and economic conditions in your area.

8. RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Except as described below, you are not obligated to purchase or lease from us, our designees or suppliers approved by us, or under our specifications, any goods, services, supplies, fixtures, equipment, inventory, computer hardware and software, or real estate relating to operating your Restaurant.

To ensure a uniform image and uniform quality of products and services throughout the Doc Green's franchise system, you must purchase all food products, supplies, ingredients, equipment, furnishings, merchandise, employee uniforms, goods, fixtures, inventory, paper products, packaging, and other items used, sold, displayed or distributed in your Restaurant (i) in compliance with our standards and specifications contained in the Operations Manual or otherwise communicated to you by us in writing and (ii) from suppliers designated or approved in writing by us. We may designate, at any time and for any reason, a single or multiple suppliers for these items and require you to purchase exclusively from such designated supplier or suppliers, which exclusive designated suppliers(s) may be us or an affiliate of ours.

You must also adhere to our standards and specifications for the construction and design of the Restaurant. We may, at any time, change, delete, add to or modify any of our standards and specifications. These changes, deletions, additions or modifications, which will be uniform for all franchisees, may require additional expenditures by you. You must prepare all required construction plans and specifications and ensure they comply with building codes and ordinances. If your construction plans and specifications deviate from our plans and specifications, you must obtain our approval of the changes. It is your responsibility to obtain all required licenses, permits and approvals associated with constructing and operating your Restaurant.

Currently, we do not intend to be, or to appoint any of our affiliates as, an authorized supplier of any products, supplies, equipment or other items used in the operation of the Restaurant. However, we reserve the right to designate ourselves and/or any of our affiliates as an approved supplier in the future, and we may even designate ourselves or an affiliate as the sole supplier of one or more items, in which case, you would have to buy the item from us or our affiliate at our or their then-current price. Our Operations Manual and other communications will identify our standards and specifications and the names of approved or designated suppliers. If we become a designated supplier, we may charge you a reasonable mark-up, surcharge and handling fee on any items you purchase from us. Monies you pay to us will include a profit for us. Systems Opportunities Savings ("SOS") will provide food brokerage services to the Doc Green's franchise system. SOS is indirectly related to us through Martin Sprock, our Chief Executive Officer and Director, who is a 50% equity holder in SOS. SOS may receive, directly or indirectly, revenue from suppliers based on purchases by Doc Green's franchisees to cover SOS's expenses, overhead and profit. The revenue may be based on volume or per unit sales. During the last fiscal year, ended December 31, 2005, SOS's revenues based on purchases by Doc Green's franchisees was $8,071 based on SOS's internal financial statements. Individually, Mr. Sprock also holds a small minority interest in two other suppliers to the Doc Green's franchise system: Atlanta Lighting and Kudzu International. Currently, we do not derive revenue, directly or indirectly from any of those suppliers in connection with the services or products they provide to our franchisees.

We must approve the site for your Restaurant and the site must meet our then-current site criteria. If you lease the site for your Restaurant, you are required to have the landlord sign the Lease Addendum attached as an exhibit to the Development Agreement. You must also collaterally assign your lease to us by signing the form of Collateral Lease Assignment Agreement attached as an exhibit to the Lease Addendum. Under the Collateral Lease Assignment Agreement, we will be granted the right, but not the obligation, to take possession of your Restaurant premises if your franchise agreement is terminated.

We and our affiliates have the right to receive payments from authorized suppliers based upon their dealings with you and other franchisees and we may use the monies we receive without restriction for any purpose we deem appropriate or necessary. Suppliers may pay us based upon the quantities of products the Doc Green's franchise system purchases from them. These fees will usually be based upon an amount per case or an amount per pound. We may receive fees from a supplier as a condition of our approval of that supplier. We do not provide material benefits to franchisees (for example, renewal of existing or granting additional franchises) based on their use of designated or approved suppliers. We do not currently receive payments from authorized suppliers related to their dealings with our franchisees and the Doc Green's franchise system.

We do not currently, but we may in the future, negotiate supply arrangements with suppliers for the benefit of franchisees.

We estimate that purchases and leases made by you from designated or approved suppliers, or according to our standards and specifications, represents 80% or more of your total cost of establishing, and approximately 90% of the total cost of operating, your Restaurant. There are currently no purchasing or distribution cooperatives within the Doc Green's franchise system. In the future, we may require you to (i) become a member of any purchasing and/or distribution cooperative(s)/association(s)/program(s) designated by us and/or established by us for the Doc Green's franchise system, (ii) remain a member in good standing of the purchasing and/or distribution cooperative(s)/association(s)/program(s), and (iii) pay all membership dues or fees on purchase that are assessed by the purchasing and/or distribution cooperative(s)/associations(s)/program(s).

Point of Sale Computer System. You must purchase one of the two point of sale ("POS") systems defined in Item 11. We have the right to designate a single supplier for a particular POS system. Currently, Southern Retail Systems of London, Kentucky, is the sole designated supplier for the Toshiba TEC FS-3600 POS System, and ERC of Kennesaw, Georgia, is the sole designated supplier for the Panasonic 7750 workstation. We have the right to appoint additional suppliers for these POS systems or other POS systems we designate. Neither of our affiliates nor we derive revenue from your purchase of a POS system.

We may require you to maintain support service contracts and/or maintenance service contracts and implement and periodically make upgrades and changes to the POS system, computer hardware and software, and credit card, debit card or other non-cash payment systems. We may designate the vendor(s) for these support services contracts and maintenance service contracts.

Insurance. You must obtain and maintain, at your own expense, the insurance coverage we require, and you must meet the other insurance-related obligations in the Franchise Agreement. The types of insurance includes comprehensive general liability insurance with coverages for products liability, contractual liability, personal and advertising injury, fire damage, medical expenses and liquor liability, workers' compensation insurance, comprehensive crime and employee dishonesty insurance, business interruption and extra expense insurance, and personal property insurance. We specify the minimum amount of insurance coverage in the Franchise Agreement; however, you may desire to obtain greater coverages. The cost of your insurance will vary depending on the insurance carriers' charges, the terms of payment, and your insurance history.

Maintenance, Service and Support Contracts. We may require you to maintain maintenance contracts or service contracts on all equipment and machinery designated by us (the costs may vary based on the items and the contract you select) and we will have the right to designate the vendor(s) for those contracts. We may also require you to maintain a contract(s), or participate in any of our contracts, with third-party(ies) offering customer service, shipper experience, food safety or other service programs designed to audit, survey, evaluate or inspect business operations. We have the right to specify the third party(ies) and the required level of participation in such programs. You will be responsible for the cost of maintaining these contracts and/or participating in these programs.

Request for Supplier Approval. If (i) you wish to purchase any item from a supplier (manufacturer or distributor) we have not previously approved or an item that does not comply with our standards and specifications and (ii) the item has not been designated by us to be exclusively supplied by a designated supplier(s), you must first submit to us a written request for approval. We will establish a procedure for submitting these requests. We will require the proposed supplier to provide us with certain financial and operational information and other information regarding the supplier and the items to be approved. In addition, the proposed supplier must permit our representatives to inspect its facilities (e.g. business offices and/or manufacturing facilities, as applicable). Before we approve a supplier, we will evaluate the economic terms of a possible relationship and ensure that the proposed supplier meets our requirements. We reserve the right, at our option, and at the proposed supplier's expense, to inspect or re-inspect the facilities, equipment, and raw materials of any supplier, at any time.

The proposed supplier or you must pay, in advance, a fee not to exceed the reasonable cost of any evaluation, testing, and inspections we undertake. Within a reasonable time frame after we receive the completed request and after we complete any evaluation and inspection or testing, we will notify you in writing of our approval or disapproval of the proposed supplier or item. Generally, we will respond to your requests for supplier approval within a reasonable time period not to exceed 90 days. We are not required to approve any supplier or item not meeting our standards and specifications. We may deny approval for any reason, including our determination to limit the number of approved suppliers. You must not use, offer for sale or sell any of the proposed supplier's products or any other product that does not meet our standards or specifications until you receive our written approval of the proposed supplier or item.

We may revoke our approval of particular goods or services, or of the supplier that supplies them, if we determine, in our sole discretion, that they no longer meet our standards or specifications. If you receive a written notice of revocation from us, you must stop selling disapproved products and/or stop purchasing from the disapproved supplier.

The Advertising Fund will be established as a separate banking account and monies received from you will be accounted for separately from our other funds. There is no fiduciary or trust relationship created by our administering the Advertising Fund. We may cause the Advertising Fund to be incorporated or operated through a separate entity if we deem appropriate. (See Franchise Agreement, Section 11.2.) We anticipate all of our franchisees will contribute to the Advertising Fund, although there is no prohibition against us charging higher or lower rates for future franchisees. (See Franchise Agreement, Section 11.2.) We also may forgive, waive, settle or compromise claims by or against the Advertising Fund. We may defer or reduce a franchisee's contribution. If we terminate the Advertising Fund, we will distribute all unused monies to the contributors in proportion to their respective contributions during a pre-determined period.

We use the Advertising Fund to create, among other things, promotional advertising, marketing programs, market research and marketing and advertising activities. We direct all advertising programs developed with funds from the Advertising Fund and have sole discretion over the creative concepts, materials, media used, media placement, and allocation of these programs. Any advertising program or campaign we develop may include dissemination of advertising through print, radio, television, point-of-purchase materials, or other media. This coverage may be local, regional or national in scope. We may employ an advertising agency or other agency to assist in the development, production and dissemination of advertising materials, or we may hire personnel to perform these functions. We have no obligation to spend any amount on advertising in the area where your Restaurant is located. (See Franchise Agreement, Section 11.2.) In fact, we have no obligation to spend the Advertising Funds to benefit all franchisees or to ensure the monies are used proportionately or equivalent to a franchisee's contributions to the Advertising Fund. During the past fiscal year, we collected $84 in Advertising Fund contributions that were spent on general and administrative expenses.

We may charge all costs of the formulation, development and placement of advertising and promotional materials to the Advertising Fund. These costs will include the proportionate share of our employees who devote time and render services for advertising and promotion or the administration of the Advertising Fund, including administrative costs, salaries, overhead expenses related to administering the Advertising Fund and its programs. In any fiscal year, we may spend more or less than the aggregate of contributions to the Advertising Fund in that year. The Advertising Fund may borrow from third party lenders to cover deficits, and any lenders will receive interest on the borrowed funds. Any amounts that remain in the Advertising Fund at the end of each fiscal year will be applied toward the next year's expenses. We assume no liability or obligations to you or any franchisee for collecting amounts due to the Advertising Fund or to administering or maintaining the Advertising Fund. If we prepare financial statements for the Advertising Fund, we will make them available to you; however, on request, we will provide you with information on how the Advertising Fund's monies were spent. We will not use funds from the Advertising Fund for advertising that is principally a solicitation for the sale of franchises. (See Franchise Agreement, Section 11.2.)

Although we can establish a cooperative in a marketing area and require you to participate, as of the date of this Offering Circular, we have not done so. If we establish an advertising cooperative in a designated marketing area where you are located, you must participate and abide by any rules and procedures adopted by the cooperative and approved by us. (See Franchise Agreement, Section 11.4.) Each of our marketing areas will encompass a group of franchisees located in a geographically-defined local, regional or national marketing area. You will contribute to your respective cooperative, but not more than 2% of your Gross Sales, the exact amount to be set by us. Amounts contributed by you to a cooperative will be credited against monies you are otherwise required to spend on local advertising (See Item 6 of this Offering Circular). We have the right to draft your bank account for your advertising cooperative contribution and to pass those funds on to your cooperative.

The franchisee members will be responsible for administration of their respective advertising cooperative, as set forth in the by-laws and any payment agreements that may govern the cooperative. The by-laws and governing agreements will be made available for review by the cooperative's franchisee members. We do not require a cooperative to prepare annual or periodic financial statements for review. Each cooperative will maintain its own funds; however, we have the right to review the cooperative's finances, if we so choose. We maintain the right to approve all of a cooperative's marketing programs and advertising materials. Upon 30 days written notice to affected franchisees, we may terminate or suspend a cooperative's program or operations. We may form, change, dissolve or merge any advertising cooperative.

Any advertising or marketing materials not prepared or previously approved by us must be submitted to us at least two weeks prior to any publication or run date for approval. All advertising and promotion must be factually accurate and must not detrimentally affect the Marks or the Doc Green's franchise system. We may grant or withhold our approval of any advertising or marketing materials, in our sole discretion. We will provide you with written notification of our approval or disapproval within a reasonable time. If we do not notify you of our approval or disapproval within 10 days of our receipt of the materials, the materials will be deemed approved. You must discontinue your use of any approved advertising within five days of your receipt of our request if we subsequently request you to do so. (See Franchise Agreement, Section 11.5.)

We do not restrict where you can conduct your advertising and other franchisees will not be precluded from advertising in your Franchise Territory just like you will not be restricted from advertising in someone else's exclusive territory. We or our affiliates may advertise within your Franchise Territory for the sale of products and supplies.

You must participate in any promotional and advertising programs that we establish.

No advertising or promotion may be conducted by you over the Internet/worldwide web or through other forms of electronic media, whether within or outside your Franchise Territory, without our express prior written consent, which we can withhold for any or no reason. (See Franchise Agreement, Section 11.5.)

We may use collection agents and bring legal proceedings to collect amounts owed to the Fund. We have no liability or obligation to you for maintaining any cooperative and each cooperative will be organized and governed in the form and manner that we determine in advance. We may change, dissolve or merge any cooperative.

Local Advertising. You must spend at least 2% of your Gross Sales each calendar quarter on local advertising. We have the right to require that you provide us with proof that these funds were spent. If we require you to participate in an advertising cooperative, you will be able to designate a portion of the monies otherwise spent on local advertising towards the funds required by the cooperative. All affiliate-owned Restaurants must spend money for local advertising on an equal percentage basis with all franchised Restaurants.

Grand Opening. You must develop and implement a grand opening promotion approved by us for your Restaurant. You must spend a minimum of $15,000 for the grand opening promotion.

Operations Manual. Exhibit D to this Offering Circular is a table of contents of our Operations Manual. The total number of pages in our Operations Manual is 428 pages.

Computer Hardware and Software. You must purchase an electronic POS cash register system from one of our two designated sources (see Item 8) or from some other source designated by us. The main functions of the POS system are to collect and manage information about the various sales transactions at your restaurant. For example, you will likely use the POS system to post all product and service sales, keep inventory control, post sales tax, refunds and credits, and maintain customer information. We have the right to electronically and manually access the information that the POS system generates. You must cooperate with us in helping us access this information. You must supply the appropriate communications devices in order to permit the POS system to operate. You may be required to establish Internet access through a reputable Internet service provider. The currently approved POS systems are the Toshiba TEC FS-3600 POS System and the Panasonic 7750. We are not contractually obligated to provide any maintenance, repairs, upgrades or updates. Our designated vendors may do so from time to time, but you will need to contact them to determine what services (e.g. maintenance services) they provide and the cost of those services. You are contractually required at your expense to upgrade and update the POS system to remain in compliance with our standards and specifications. There are no contractual limitations on the frequency and cost of this requirement. If we require the system to be accessible by us via modem or otherwise, we will have the right at any time to poll your system to retrieve and compile information concerning your Restaurant. In other words, we will have independent access to your sales information and data produced by your system. There are no contractual limitations on our right to access this information and data. (See Franchise Agreement, Section 10.) In addition to the POS system, we may require that you install computer systems meeting our standards and specifications. The computer systems would be used to assist you in the operation of your Restaurant. You would be responsible for all costs associated with any computer systems including accessing the Internet. We would have the right to access the information generated by the computer system, without limitation.

Site Selection. Each proposed site for a Restaurant established under your Development Agreement must be located in your Area of Responsibility. Within our discretion, we may consider sites proposed by you outside your Area of Responsibility. The proposed site for your Restaurant must be accepted by us along with any applicable lease, sublease or purchase agreement. We may help you select the site for your Restaurant, although we are not obligated to do so. For example, on occasion we solicit the assistance of a real estate broker with expertise within the Area of Responsibility. You will interface directly with the broker. The site for your Restaurant may be leased or owned by you. Our approval of a site will be based on the information you give us to review, including a site plan. The information we need should include: (i) square footage; (ii) traffic patterns, flow, and total count; (iii) density and income level of the surrounding population; (iv) land and building costs; (v) zoning patterns; (vi) surrounding educational and recreational facilities; (vii) terms of the lease, if any; (viii) the distance from competing businesses, including other Doc Green's Restaurants; and (ix) other factors having a substantial bearing on the proposed site. (See Development Agreement, Section 7.) In addition, you must submit for acceptance by us proposed site and construction plans and any modification to our specifications you propose. The construction of the premises must be completed according to our specifications. If you lease the premises, you and the landlord must enter into a lease addendum and collateral assignment of the lease in the form attached as Exhibit B to the Development Agreement, which includes, among other things, a provision that permits you to assign your interest in the premises to us when your Franchise Agreement expires or terminates. If we do not approve a site, you must propose a new site. If we and you are unable to agree upon a site for a Restaurant and, as a result, you fail to meet your Development Schedule, we may terminate your Development Agreement. Approval of a location does not imply or guarantee the success or profitability of the site. While there is no contractual limit on the time it takes us to approve or disapprove your proposed site and lease, once we have all the necessary documentation for review, we typically take 30-60 days to approve or disapprove the proposed site and lease.

Start-up Time. We expect that you will open your Restaurant within three to four months after you sign the Franchise Agreement. The factors that affect this timing are financing, building permits, zoning, local ordinance issues, and delayed installation of equipment, fixtures, and signs. If you do not commence operation of the Restaurant within four months after the effective date of the Franchise Agreement, we may terminate the Franchise Agreement.

Conferences and Meetings. Although we are not obligated under the Franchise Agreement, we may hold periodic conferences, management meetings or refresher courses to discuss sales techniques, personnel training, bookkeeping, accounting, inventory control, and the like. These conferences may be held at our Atlanta, Georgia location or such other place that we may designate and may last 1 or 2 days. We may charge you a reasonable fee to attend these meetings or conferences, which we expect will not be more than $500 per person (see Item 6). You must pay your own travel and accommodation expenses. (See Franchise Agreement, Sections 14.3 and 14.4.)

Electronic Funds Transfer. We may require you to pay all fees or contributions due under the Franchise Agreement by automated bank draft or other reasonable means necessary to ensure we receive payment of all fees and contributions. You must comply with any of our payment instructions, including executing any forms which grant us the right to debit your account on a weekly basis for payment of royalty and advertising fees or contributions and other fees or contributions to be paid to us or required by us under the Franchise Agreement. (See Franchise Agreement, Section 5.3.)

Training. Below is a description of our initial training program as of the date of this Offering Circular. Training programs are subject to change as procedures and processes change. We will train the two Managers that (i) will assume primary responsibility for managing the Restaurant and (ii) will devote full time and best efforts to the management and operation of the Restaurant. We may permit additional managers of your Restaurant to attend the initial training program, and, if we do, you will be responsible for all costs and expenses incurred by us in providing the training to these additional managers. Unless you will be a Manager for the Restaurant, you are not required to attend initial training. Each person required to complete the initial training program must attend and successfully complete it, as determined by us, before the Restaurant opens for business. Unless we agree otherwise, you or your primary manager must complete the initial training program within four months after you sign the Franchise Agreement. In addition, we may require you and your managers and employees to attend additional training programs, which we have not yet developed, and you may be charged a reasonable fee for the additional training.

The initial training program will last approximately three weeks and will be comprised of classroom training and training in a Doc Green's approved facility. Training will occur at our facility in Atlanta, Georgia, or at another facility that we will designate. Training will be conducted as often as we deem necessary, but at least monthly. See Item 7 of this Offering Circular for a discussion of costs and expenses associated with the initial training program. (See Franchise Agreement, Section 14.1.)

12. TERRITORY

Development Agreement. The Development Agreement will specify an Area of Responsibility within which you will focus your development efforts. Under the Development Agreement, you are not granted a territory, exclusive or otherwise, within which to develop your Restaurant(s). You may establish a Restaurant at any location within your Area of Responsibility provided that we consent to the location, which may be granted or withheld in our sole discretion, the location is in a state where we are permitted to sell Doc Green's franchises, and the location is not located in another franchisee's franchise territory or area of responsibility. We will notify you of those areas which have been assigned to franchisees, either as exclusive territories or areas of responsibility. We do not intend to grant a large number of franchise territories, although we intend on occasion to grant other franchisees areas of responsibility within which they will concentrate their development efforts. An area of responsibility is a geographic territory (e.g., a county or multiple counties or area within a city) within which we expect the franchisee to concentrate his/her development efforts. You will have no exclusive territorial rights, protected territory or other rights to exclude, control or impose conditions on the location or development of other or future franchises under the Marks or on our activities, except as may be provided in an applicable Franchise Agreement. If you fail to meet your Development Schedule, we may terminate your Development Agreement.

Franchise Agreement. You will receive the right to operate a Doc Green's Restaurant only at a site we approve, in our sole discretion. The site will be designated in the Franchise Agreement. Your Franchise Territory will be negotiated by you and us prior to your execution of the Franchise Agreement and specifically described in the Franchise Agreement. In negotiating the Franchise Territory, we may examine population, traffic flow, presence of businesses, location of competitors (including other Doc Green's franchisees), demographic and other market conditions. A typical Franchise Territory generally extends for 1.5 miles around the Restaurant. As long as you are in compliance with the Franchise Agreement, we will not operate a Doc Green's Restaurant within your Franchise Territory, and we will not authorize anyone else to do so. You will operate your Restaurant only from the approved site, and you must receive our permission before you relocate your Restaurant. We have not established a set of conditions or criteria under which we evaluate or approve relocation requests.

You may solicit customers and advertise your Restaurant anywhere you choose. There are no restrictions on you, any of our other franchisees, or us to prevent any soliciting or advertising in someone else's franchise territory. No party is obligated to pay compensation to any other party for soliciting customers from the other franchisee's franchise territory. In addition, you may deliver products from the Restaurant within or without your Franchise Territory in connection with providing catering services within a reasonable distance from your Restaurant, but not more than 25 miles, provided the deliveries are made by ground transportation. Subject to this maximum mileage requirement, you may provide catering and delivery services in another franchisee's franchise territory, and other Doc Green's franchisees may provide the same services in your Franchise Territory. You may not ship products within or without your Franchise Territory.

Under the Franchise Agreement, we and our affiliates have reserved the right to establish anywhere franchises and/or company-owned or affiliate-owned restaurants or outlets selling similar products and providing similar services (including within your Franchise Territory) under names and symbols other than the Marks, even if these restaurants or outlets are near your Restaurant. Nevertheless, as of the date of this Offering Circular, we have no present plans to exercise any of these rights. We also reserve the right to operate, for ourselves or others, businesses using the Marks to distribute products or offer services that may be similar to or different from those found in Doc Green's Restaurants, both within and outside your Franchise Territory, so long as we do not do so through the operation of a Doc Green's Restaurant. We also reserve the exclusive right to sell products identified with the Marks both within and outside your Franchise Territory through any distribution channel or method (whether at retail or wholesale), including sales through catalogs, e-commerce, mail order, kiosks, mass merchandise, supermarkets and club stores, except through the operation of a Doc Green's Restaurant, even if you sell these products at your Restaurant. As one example, we have the right to sell Doc Green's food products through a nationwide retail chain even if the chain has facilities located within your Franchise Territory. On the other hand, you have no right to sell any products from any location other than your Restaurant and you have no right to sell products through the Internet or worldwide web, through mail order or catalogs or through any other form of distribution channel or method. We have affiliates that operate and/or franchise competitive restaurant concepts and these concepts may be operated in close proximity to your Restaurant. You have no right to use the Marks in connection with any business other than a Doc Green's Restaurant. We have the right to engage in any other activities not expressly prohibited in the Franchise Agreement.

You have no right of first refusal or similar rights to acquire additional franchises or establish additional Doc Green's Restaurants.

We have not established any minimum sales quota and do not require any certain level of market penetration in order for you to maintain your Franchise Territory. We will not reduce the size of your Franchise Territory even if the population in it increases. Likewise, we will not expand the size of your Franchise Territory if the population in it decreases. We cannot alter your Franchise Territory unless you give us your written consent. Any rights that are not specifically granted to you under the Franchise Agreement are retained by us.

Other restaurant concepts owned now or in the future by us or our affiliates may be established in close proximity to your Restaurant.

13. TRADEMARKS

Under the Franchise Agreement, we grant you the non-exclusive right to operate your Restaurant under the name "DOC GREEN'S GOURMET SALADS" and to use the other Marks we authorize you to use. The following chart lists the principal Marks that you may use with your franchise, subject to your use conforming with the Franchise Agreement, the Operations Manual, and other written directives we may issue.

The following Marks are registered with the Principal Register of the United States Patent and Trademark Office (the "USPTO"):

Mark	Registration No.	Registration Date	Owner
DOC GREEN'S GOURMET SALADS®	2,999,088	9/20/05	Us

Applications for the registration of the following Marks have been filed with the Principal Register of the USPTO.

Mark	Serial No.	Filing Date	Owner
DOC GREEN'S GOURMET SALADS (plus design)	76603463	7/22/04	Us

There are no currently effective determinations of the USPTO, Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, the Trademark Administrator of any state, or any court; nor is there any pending infringement, opposition or cancellation proceedings, or material litigation, involving the Marks. No agreements limit our right to use or license the Marks.

You must follow the Franchise Agreement, the Operations Manual and our specifications when you use the Marks. The Marks are the only Marks you may use to identify the Restaurant. You may not use any Mark as part of any corporate or trade name or as part of any domain name or electronic address you maintain on the Internet, the worldwide web, or any other similar proprietary or common carrier electronic delivery system unless we expressly authorize you to do so in writing. You may not use the Marks in connection with the sale of an unauthorized product or service or in a manner not authorized in writing by us. Your use of the Marks and any goodwill is to our exclusive benefit and you retain no rights in the Marks other than a license to use the Marks during the terms of the Franchise Agreement. You are not permitted to make any changes of any kind in or to the use of the Marks unless we permit.

There may be situations in which we will permit you to use a Mark as a domain name in association with your approved website for your Restaurant. If we do, you must sign our standard form of Domain Name License Agreement which is incorporated into this Offering Circular as Exhibit E. The Domain Name License Agreement governs your right to use the Marks as a domain name during the term of your Franchise Agreement, and specifies the circumstances under which you will lose that right. The Operations Manual may also contain standards and specifications for the use of any domain name.

You must notify us immediately when you learn about an infringement of or challenge to your use of a Mark. We will take the action we think appropriate. We have the right to exclusively control any litigation, USPTO proceeding, or other proceeding arising out of any infringement, challenge or claim or otherwise relating to any Mark.

You must not directly or indirectly contest our right to the Marks, trade secrets or business techniques that are part of our business. We have no contractual obligation to protect you against claims of infringement regarding your use of the Marks, but we might do so when your rights require protection. In that case, if you cooperate with us, we would pay all cost, including attorneys' fees and court costs, associated with any litigation required to defend or protect your authorized use of the Marks. We will not pay any of your attorneys' fees if you hire your own attorney.

You must modify or discontinue the use of a Mark if we instruct you to do so. If this happens, you are responsible for your tangible costs of compliance (i.e. changing signs) and we do not have to reimburse you for any loss of revenue due to any modified or discontinued Mark, or for your expenses of promoting a modified or substitute Mark. We may develop or acquire additional Marks and make them available for your use.

We do not know of any superior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of the Marks.

14. PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS, AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

There are no patents or registered copyrights that are material to your Doc Green's franchise.

We claim common law rights and copyright protection in a number of items you will use in the operation of your Doc Green's Restaurant, including our Operations Manual, and in certain other materials and information related to the Doc Green's system, like our marketing materials, specifications, architectural drawings, Restaurant designs, marketing techniques, advertising programs, advertising strategies, supplier lists, expansion plans, and other information we create or use. We have not registered any of these copyrighted materials with the United States Registrar of Copyrights, although we may do so.

All materials or information of any kind that are designated "confidential" orally or in writing or which, under the circumstances surrounding disclosure, ought to be treated as confidential, are deemed confidential and are loaned to you only under and during the term of the Franchise Agreement and Development Agreement. All confidential materials and the information contained in them must be treated by you as confidential and you must use your best efforts to keep them confidential during and after the terms of the Franchise Agreement and Development Agreement as provided in each agreement. This means that you cannot make copies in any medium of any confidential information or use any confidential information outside of the scope of the Franchise Agreement or Development Agreement or disclose any confidential information to any third party or other persons identified by us as not having authorization to receive disclosure of confidential information. You may disclose confidential information contained in the Operations Manual only to your employees who have a business need to have access to the confidential information, but only if you first secure from them an agreement to maintain the confidentiality of the confidential information disclosed.

All copyrighted materials and confidential information are owned exclusively by us. Your right to use copyrighted materials and confidential information is derived solely from the Franchise Agreement and Development Agreement and is limited to the conduct of the business under and in compliance with the Franchise Agreement and Development Agreement and all applicable specifications, standards, and operating procedures we prescribe during the term of the Franchise Agreement and Development Agreement. Any unauthorized use of our copyrighted materials or any unauthorized use or disclosure of confidential information will constitute an infringement of our rights in and to the copyrighted materials and confidential information.

We may claim copyright protection in certain techniques we create, and may patent certain processes and equipment we develop. If we do, we will notify you and, if the copyrights and patents are material to your obligations under the Franchise Agreement, we will authorize you to use them at no additional charge. Any modifications or improvements that you make to the Doc Green's franchise system will be deemed a works made for hire which shall be owned exclusively by us. We do not have to compensate you for your modification or improvement.

You must promptly notify us of any unauthorized use of our copyrighted materials or any unauthorized use or disclosure of confidential information, including by your employees. You must notify us of any challenge to your right to use or the ownership of any copyrighted materials or confidential information. We are not required to protect or defend our copyrights, although we intend to do so when it is in the best interests of the Doc Green's franchise system. We have the exclusive right to control any copyright litigation. We have the right to keep all sums obtained in settlement or as a damages award in any proceeding or litigation without any obligation to share any portion of the settlement sums or damages award with you. While we are not required to participate in your defense or to indemnify you for damages or expenses you incur if you are a party to any administrative or judicial proceeding involving our confidential information or other information in which we claim common law rights and copyright protection, we may reimburse you for your liability and reasonable costs in connection with defending our confidential information and other information in which we claim common law rights and copyright protection.

We will have the right at any time, on notice to you, to make additions to, deletions from, and changes in any item in which we claim common law copyright or registered copyright protection including the Operations Manual. You must adopt and use all additions, deletions, and changes as we direct, at your expense.

Your spouse, and if you are not an individual, your shareholders, members, partners and managers, as applicable, and their spouses, must execute the Personal Covenants attached to the Franchise Agreement as Exhibit B and the Development Agreement as Exhibit C requiring them to comply with the confidentiality provisions of the Franchise Agreement and the Development Agreement, refrain from engaging in competing businesses, and refrain from soliciting our employees and the employees of other Doc Green's franchisees. We have the right to require your other employees who have access to our confidential information to execute a noncompetition, nonsolicitation and/or nondisclosure agreement in the form(s) prescribed by us from time to time. We have the right to take legal action against you if there has been an unauthorized use of our confidential information or trade secrets through you or your employees.

There is currently no litigation pending involving the copyrighted materials or confidential information. We do not know of any effective material determinations of the U.S. Copyright Office or any court regarding any of the copyrighted materials or confidential information. 15. OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

You must maintain direct responsibility over the Restaurant; however, we do not require that you personally supervise the day-to-day operations of the Restaurant. During operations hours, a Manager who has successfully completed the initial training program, described in Section 14.1 of the Franchise Agreement, must at all times be at your Restaurant. The Managers must directly supervise and be responsible for the day-to-day management and proper operation of your Restaurant, and the Managers may not assist in any business which competes with your Restaurant. The Managers must invest their full time and attention and devote their best efforts to the on-premises management of the Restaurant. The Managers cannot have an interest or business relationship with any of our business competitors. The Managers need not have an ownership interest in a corporate, limited liability company, or partnership franchisee.

If the Managers are not already bound by the Franchise Agreement, we may require them to sign a noncompetition, nonsolicitation and/or nondisclosure agreement in the form(s) prescribed by us. This noncompetition, nonsolicitation and/or nondisclosure agreement will prohibit them from directly or indirectly engaging in activities that compete with the operations of your Restaurant or any other Doc Green's Restaurant, disclosing our confidential and proprietary information and trade secrets, and soliciting our employees and employees of other Doc Green's franchisees. We also may require those employees who have received our confidential and proprietary information to enter into the same noncompetition, nonsolicitation and/or nondisclosure agreement.

We may require each of your owners holding at least a 10% equity interest in you, to personally guarantee your obligations to us under the Development Agreement and the Franchise Agreement. The guarantees will be in the form of the Guaranty Agreement attached as Exhibit E to the Development Agreement and Exhibit F to the Franchise Agreement, respectively.

16. RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

You must conduct the business operated at your Restaurant as required by the Operations Manual and the Franchise Agreement. You must offer and sell only those products and services approved by us. Further, you must offer all goods and services that we designate as required for all franchisees. These required goods and services include fresh gourmet salads and soups. We have the right to add additional authorized goods and services that you must offer. This means that we have the right to require you to carry the required menu items that we dictate and that we determine are appropriate for Doc Green's Restaurants. There are no limits on our right to make modifications to our approved menu, whether by a change in the Operations Manual or through an amendment to the Franchise Agreement or by another form of written directive.

We will not restrict you from soliciting any customers, no matter who they are or where they are located. However, you may only sell products to consumers for consumer purposes (and not for resale). You may not sell products at wholesale. In addition, you may provide delivery and catering services from the Restaurant within or without your Franchise Territory in connection with providing these delivery and catering services within a reasonable distance from the site of the Restaurant not to exceed 25 miles, provided the deliveries are made by ground transportation. Subject to this maximum mileage requirement, you may provide catering and delivery services in the Franchise Territories of other Doc Green's franchisees, and other Doc Green's franchisees may provide the same services in your Franchise Territory. You may not ship products within or without your Franchise Territory.

You may not have or use, or permit the presence or use of, video game machines or vending machines or any similar device or machine at the Restaurant unless we consent in writing.
